

JEROME WADE, CSP

International Master of Ceremonies

Jerome Wade BIO

Jerome Wade, CSP, is an author, keynote speaker, and international Master of Ceremonies. With more than 3000 events of experience, Jerome masterfully guides audiences through the programming and complexities of event schedules and information with wit and wisdom. Audiences immediately embrace Jerome’s authenticity and professionalism as he energizes and encourages full engagement from the beginning to the end of events.

Jerome goes beyond leading and facilitating meetings from the stage by being highly engaged with audience members before and after sessions as well as after-hours events and activities. Jerome’s irresistible style adds immense value to event planners and attendees as he makes himself available to ensure their success. With an undeterred commitment to providing only the highest quality of emcee professionalism, Jerome is the go-to resource when your event demands the best.

There are three priorities that Jerome emcee’s from:

1. Energy – the key to a great event is creating and sustaining the appropriate levels of energy throughout the entire experience.
2. Entertainment – holding your audience’s attention and calling them to action is a result of creating moments that capture the heart and mind.
3. Engagement – when your audience is engaged, they rave about it as well as get the most from their event experience.

When Jerome is not live on stage speaking or emceeing an event he is the CEO of Epic Global™, a leadership and sales performance consultancy and creator of the online Elite Producers Program™ that coaches individuals and organizations how to get extraordinary results, accelerate revenue, and build high value relationships.
